

Fine Arts LEAP

What will I learn?

Humanities – Debate contemporary issues and expand your thinking about diverse American experiences and communities through film, literature, media and the arts

Social/Behavioral Science – Analyze current cross-cultural concerns for our increasingly complex world through the lens of the social sciences and the arts

Library Research skills– Practice professional research techniques for creative and scholarly work in the arts, humanities and social sciences

LEAP 1100 – Fine Arts LEAP: Seminar in Humanities

LEAP 1101 – Fine Arts LEAP: Seminar in Social Sciences

Two-semester sequence for 3 Credits:

1. Diversity
2. Humanities
3. Social Science

- Concentrates on your interests if you enjoy or study the fine arts such as: Theater, Music, Film, Dance, Visual Arts, Architecture and Art History
- Choose either MWF 10:45-11:35 or TH 10:45-12:05

Fine Arts LEAP

- Relevance—practical applications for today's world
- Connectivity—a social experience that you will use your whole life and in your careers
- Creative expression—capturing your audience, communicating your message, making a difference

